From inspiration to expression

Small, light, easy to transport, and of high aesthetic and acoustic quality, the Clio is made with all the skill we have accumulated in forty years of manufacturing harps. It is an extraordinarily reliable harp, equipped with the latest mechanism for our top-range models. A perfect starting block for budding musicians, fuelling their creativity and musical vocation, the Clio is also an ideal muse for the professional harpist: for chamber music, orchestral work and smaller concerts.
